

Red Devil Review 4-25-2021

We are truly approaching the end of the academic year. I could not be any prouder of the year that we have had. You are truly an outstanding group of folks. I am thankful to have had the opportunity to be allied and identified with you. Ms. Thompson reports:

Pre-K began their Insect unit this week. A KWL chart was created by each class to determine what students know (or think they know about insects) and what students wanted to know. They will add to the chart throughout the unit as they learn new facts. Teachers read a variety of books about insects—fiction and nonfiction. Students discussed the differences in nonfiction and fiction books. After reading the books, students worked to label the parts of a butterfly and created a Venn diagram comparing/contrasting ladybugs and butterflies. They learned about the life cycle of a caterpillar. For math students put insects in order by size. The letter focus for the week was Ww and the number was 19.

Ms. Bass reports:

Mrs. Long's kindergarten class sent off their stories to be published in a book. They are very excited about becoming published authors! Miss Gainous' kindergarten students celebrated Earth Day by planting flowers. They look forward to watching their flowers grow.

Miss Studstill's 1st grade class enjoyed observing the weather each day this week. They will continue to observe it throughout the week and compare the weather from each day. The first graders also started learning about time this week! They learned so much from this hands-on learning experience.

Kindergarten and 1st grade teachers hosted a gift card baby shower for Emilie Lawrence and Royce Owens on Tuesday. Faculty and staff showered the two with gift cards for their baby girl, Gracelynn Belle.

The students in Mrs. Linder's 2nd grade class made birds' nests this week. They have been learning about how living things change their environment this week.

PCES has the best secretaries in the whole world. In honor of Administrative Assistant's Day, we recognized Kathy Keen, Angie Mitchell, and Patricia Thompson on Wednesday. They received various gifts and goodies from the faculty and staff.

Ms. Kilgore reports:

to the PCMS Students of the Month for April. They are sixth graders--Sara Ortiz, Taylor Wilcox, Alexi Harris, and Levi Bailey; seventh graders--Alisha Kersey, Adrienne Jenkins, Autumn Linder, and Grayson Lamb; eighth graders--Daisy Hernandez, Miracle Flowers, Joseph Wood, and Michael Wood.

Practice and tryouts were held this past week for next school year's cheerleading squad. Congratulations to Martha Bennett, Kaleeyah Fedd, Daci Griffin, Markiyah Hawkins, Susan Martinez, Audrey Moore, Kaylee Richardson, Mary Stephen Richardson, Allison Singletary, Katelynn Smith, Kinsley Smith, Jordyn Thornton, Gracie Williams, Paris Williams, Taylor Williamson, and Jes'Sonnah Wren. Cheer Coach Bond was extremely pleased with the talent, teamwork, and tenacity shown by all of the girls.

Our PCMS Golf team ended their last home match with a win against Bleckley County with a score of 218 to 233. Our top scores were Michael Wood with a 47, Joseph Wood 49, Noah Sutherland 61, and Damien Archie also with a 61. Our PCMS Golf team will finish off their season with an away match at Telfair on Tuesday, April 27. Let's wish them the best of luck!

The administration of Georgia Milestones End-of-Grade Assessments is in full swing. Eighth grade students took the science and social studies this past week. During the upcoming week, all students will take the ELA and math portions on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday.

Coach Williamson reports:

Congratulations to the following for the week of April 19- April 23: Student of the Week, Xavier Harrell; Student of the Week Cadi Lane; Female Athlete of the Week, Erica Walker; Male Athlete of the Week, Evan Roberts

The Horticulture classes taught by Ms. Royal have been busy sprucing up the high school grounds. The students have been trimming hedges and placing pine straw in the flower beds. Thank You, Ms. Royal!
